North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public, FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c., in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the state, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

WM. E. PELL, } SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1868.

YESTERDAY.

It will be seen, by reference to the proceedings of the unconstitutional Convention, on yesterday, that, as was expected, a contract has been made with Mr. Jos. W. Holden, to report the speeches in the Convention, at a compensation of $6 per day,—the same to be published in some city paper, (the Standard, of course.) As the young gentlemen is no stenographer and can do no more than furnish just such abstracts as those already given by the Standard and other city papers, this whole proceeding may be regarded simply as a wanton waste of the public money, for the purpose of rewarding party pets. As the Register (Republican) says!

"If a citizen, without the requisite qualifications, should receive the appointment, as it is rumored, it may be hoped that his sense of propriety will induce him to telegraph for a phonographer, so that he may be on hand at the earliest practicable moment. Otherwise the office will degenerate into a mere par izan job, which will deplete the treasury without being of any benefit to the public."

A resolution was also adopted, calling upon the Public Treasurer, on the warrant of the so-called President of the so-called Convention, to pay the per diem and mileage of delegates, out of the monies at present in the Public Treasury.

In view of the strong doubts in the public mind, and of the universal conviction, outside of Radical influences, that the entire series of acts pertaining to Reconstruction are unconstitutional, and, besides this, since the proposition of the Convention is by no means authorized by the Reconstruction Acts themselves, it cannot be expected that Treasurer Battle will for a moment think of paying the money, upon the simple order of the Convention. His bond, which is a large one, we apprehend, would be seriously jeopardied, were he to do so.

MR. TEAGUE'S RESOLUTIONS.

Our report of the Convention proceedings erred, on yesterday, in attributing the following resolutions to Mr. Tourgee. They were presented by Mr. Teague, of Forsythe, and we put them on record, that it may go down to posterity, as a proof of his bitter feeling and his readiness to place North Carolina entirely and irrecoverably under negro supremacy. Read the resolutions:

Be it ordained, &c., That the County registering boards shall have power to disfranchise all and every person, that aided and abetted, gave comfort and their influence with intent to dissolve or break up the United States government, before or in time of or since the rebellion, or have been or are throwing obstructions in the way of reconstruction.

Be it further ordained, That said board shall consist of three loyal men, who can take the test-oath, (iron-clad,) to be elected as other County officers are, and shall hold their offices — months, or until their successors are elected.

Be it further ordained, That said board shall meet twenty days previous to any elections that may be held under this Constitution, first giving ten days' notice of the place or places of meeting, and shall proceed to register such person or persons as may be entitled to vote under this ordinance; and for their services shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the General Assembly.

Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall be in force from and after its ratification.

We did not suppose that any white man in North Carolina was so running over with bile against his own people. The Convention, of course, will not show so little sense as either to adopt the ordinance or to incorporate it in the Constitution. To confer such extraordinary powers upon the Boards of Registration, who must generally be an ignorant class of whites and blacks, would be monstrous. We are aware that the "black and tan" Radical paper in this City urges upon the Convention the adoption of the Alabama Constitution, which counsel, we hope, the Convention will adopt, but it will hardly gratify Mr. Teague's low malice so far, as to place the power of disfranchising our citizens in the hands of ignorant Boards of Registration. We have no choice, however, in the matter. The more violent, the meaner and the more outrageously the Convention acts, the better. No decent man in North Carolina can certainly have any desire to take part in the conduct of such a government as the Standard and Mr. Teague would have in this State.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The "most infamous act of all the infamous acts of this most infamous Congress," (to use Fernando Wood's trenchant phrase,) if it should become a law, will be the bill reported by telegraph, on yesterday, as having been agreed upon in the Jacobin Committee on Reconstruction, with regard to the Supreme Court. It takes away from the Court all appellate jurisdiction over questions occurring under the so called reconstruction acts of Congress, whether they may arise by virtue of the constitutional right of habeas corpus, or otherwise, and peremptorily orders the dismissal of such issues now pending. Will the most ultra, perverse and blood-blind Radical pretend that this is not in "infamous" violation of the Constitution? Has not Congress the same right to abolish the Court and strip it of all its powers in all matters whatsoever? And does not the CONSTITUTION of the United States declare, in Sec. II, Art. III, that "The Judicial power of the United States shall extend to ALL CASES, in law and equity, arising under this Constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority?" But why talk of the Constitution? In Radical estimation, it is of no more binding force than the hieroglyphic parchments that wrap one of the Egyptian mummies, disentombed after thirty centuries.

THE CLOVEN HEEL.—The New York Herald, in a resume of the "situation" at the South, very properly declares that the Southern negro Conventions are beginning to exhibit the croppings out of the cloven heel in an unmistakable manner. This is too painfully palpable. In the Georgia so-called Convention, the white man is considered of no account in framing the new Constitution, and the other day a proposition to prevent the intermarriage of white and blacks was tumultuously dismissed. In the Virginia Convention, having a considerable negro majority, and which was supposed, at one time, to be liberally inclined, the bitterest feeling is beginning to manifest itself. The latest dodge in the Virginia concern is that the negroes must have their share of the members of Congress; but they may be willing to compromise, if their white allies will furnish each black aspirant with an equivalent for two years Congressional services,—sixteen thousand dollars. In our so called, matters have not, as yet, fully developed themselves, except that the blacks are so jealous of their position as the equals of the whites,—which they need not be, as the entire equality is fully admitted by their Radical allies,—that they want reporters expelled who dare to make any distinction of color in the record of proceedings. The Herald says:

"Thus are the radical revolutionists going on from bad to worse—from anarchy in Washington and negro supremacy in the South to open and corrupt bargains for political plunder. In all these croppings out of the cloven heel we see the tendency of the times—that the Radicals mean to secure perpetuation of political power by all the influences at their command, or that they intend to leave us the government in a condition of inextricable confusion, riot and chaos."

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

FRIDAY, Jan. 24, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. — Warwick, (negro.)

A letter was received from Gen. Canby, containing substantially the same as the communication of yesterday.

Mr. Heaton submitted the following report from Committee:

Resolved, That the President appoint the following additional Committees, viz: On Immigration; on Statistics; on Miscellaneous Affairs and on Adjustment of articles of Constitution. Adopted.

A report from the Committee on "Governor and other Executive officers" was made by Mr. King, of Lenoir, and ordered to be printed. Goes to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Rodman submitted a report from the Judiciary Committee, concerning a memorial from W. D. Pearsall. No action taken, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration. So ordered.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, a report from the Committee on Contingent Expenses, stating that they had contracted with Mr. J. W. Holden, to report the proceedings and debates of this Convention, in a condensed form, at a compensation of six dollars per day, to be published in some daily newspaper in this city. Adopted.

Also, another report from the same Committee, recommending that no clerk be employed to assist the Chairmen of various Committees. Adopted.

The Committee appointed to wait on the Secretary of State, to procure 120 copies of certain documents, reported that only 16 could be obtained.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, a resolution, inviting Gen. Canby to visit the Convention. He moved that the rules be suspended and that the resolution be put on its passage.—Adopted.

Mr. Turner, a resolution regulating the Senatorial Districts of the State. Referred.

Mr. Parker, a resolution that all taxes levied on property in this State shall be ad valorem. Referred.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, a resolution requesting that the Treasurer furnish the Convention with a statement of amount of stock held by the State, in the Chesapeake and Albemarle Canal Co. Referred.

By the same, a resolution requesting the Treasurer to furnish the Convention the amount of indebtedness of the State. Lies over.

Mr. Peterson, a resolution in regard to Militia duties. Referred.

Mr. Rodman, a resolution that the Chairman of the Committee on Printing have power, on the request of the Chairman of any Committee, to cause to be printed any matter that they may deem necessary. Lies over.

Mr. Peterson, a resolution on Public Schools. Referred.

Mr. Peterson, a resolution raising a board of Education in each County, consisting of five citizens, to be elected by the people. Referred.

Mr. Hare, a resolution in regard to the debts of deceased persons. Referred.

Mr. Watts, an ordinance for relief from debts. Referred.

Robbins, (negro) a resolution enquiring into the expediency of incorporating into the Constitution a provision, prohibiting the hauling of seines on the Sabbath. Referred.

Mr. Dickey, an ordinance authorizing the W. N. C. R. R. Co. to endorse their capital stock, and for other purposes. Lies over.

Mr. McDonald's resolution, appealing to Congress to advance money to our various Railroad enterprises, was taken up.

Mr. McDonald advocated its passage, as it would, if successful, give employment to large numbers of the poor, and would tend greatly to develop the resources of the State.

Galloway, (negro,) thought it should be referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements; and, after some little discussion, the reference was made.

Mr. Heaton introduced an ordinance, that the Treasurer of the State of N. C. upon the warrant of the President of this Convention, is hereby authorized and empowered to pay the per diem and mileage of officers and members of this Convention.

Mr. Ashley, a resolution instructing the Committee of 16 to consider the expediency of forming a Standing Committee on Industrial Resources. Adopted.

Mr. Rodman, a resolution authorizing the Legislature to establish a Bureau of Immigration and Statistics. Referred.

Mr. Heaton moved a suspension of the rules, in order that the ordinance in relation to the payment of the per diem, introduced by himself, to day, might be put on its passage. The rule was suspended.

Mr. Sweet said that he was under the impression that the laws of the State required the Comptroller and Governor to sign all warrants for money, and he did not think the Convention should depart from the established rule.

Mr. Grahsih, of Orange, called attention to the acts of Congress prescribing the manner in which the members of Conventions should get their pay, and said that they had no right to go beyond that law. Under its provisions they had not the slightest right to make a draft upon the treasury for one cent. He would oppose the measure.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, thought if they had a right to levy a tax, they had a right to appropriate taxes, already paid.

Mr. Heaton thought that calling on the Treasurer was the proper way. The members of the Legislature got their pay on the certificate of the Speaker alone. That was a precedent, and, besides, he wished to know the position of the State authorities in regard to this matter.

Mr. Durham said that the payment of members of the Legislature was provided for by a law of the State; that the matter now under discussion was entirely beyond the province of the Convention. If Congress had contemplated such a proceeding, why was it that they did not so express it? The Treasurer was a bonded officer, and if the Reconstruction Acts should be declared unconstitutional, the Treasurer would be involved to a ruinous extent. He thought the body an unconstitutional one, and would protest against forcing the Treasurer to do anything that might amount to forfeiture of his bond. They were here in conformity to a law of Congress, and if they recognized one part of the law, why not the whole? He would place himself on the record as voting against this measure.

Mr. Tourgee thought that this brought up a question that had already been before the Convention. It is held by many that this Convention is called for a particular purpose. He thought that the 5th section of the Reconstruction acts was plain as to the manner in which the expenses of the Convention were to be met. While we have power as a Convention of the people of North Carolina, we should nevertheless conform to the acts of Congress.

Mr. Abbott here interrupted, saying that if the Treasurer refused to pay on this resolution, then Gen. Canby could be called to issue the necessary orders, thereby relieving the Treasurer from any embarrassment that might occur.

Mr. Tourgee resumed, saying that he regarded the Provisional officers as placed entirely and solely under the control of the District Commanders, as subordinate officers of a military government, and that this Convention has, therefore, no direct supervision or control over them. Therefore, he would oppose its passage.

Mr. Heaton said that he had listened to the remarks of Mr. Durham, with a good deal of surprise. If he entertained doubts of the constitutionality of the acts of Congress, under which this Convention is acting, he would not occupy a seat in it.—(Applause from the Radicals.) He did not see how the gentleman could consistently take the oath, which he did to qualify himself as a member of this Convention, and entertain such opinion. He proceeded to discuss the legality of his proposition at some little length.

Mr. Durham replied, saying that he had no doubt the gentleman and his appiswilers would be glad to get rid of him, but he intended to stay here and advocate, to the extent of his ability, a proper and just observance of the laws of the land. He was acting according to the dictates of conscience; he was convinced of the unconstitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts, and should so continue to brand them. He would ask the gentleman, (Mr. Heaton,) if the people were to reject the Constitution, and the Supreme Court should pronounce the Convention unconstitutional, would not the Treasurer forfeit his bond in paying out money to an unconstitutional body?

Mr. Heaton thought the gentleman fond of dealing in suppositions. He (Mr. D.) would never see the day that the Supreme Court would declare this body unconstitutional, and, from the signs, the Constitution framed by this Convention would be ratified by at least 30,000 majority. (More applause from the Radicals.)

Mr. Durham responded that this was matter for future consideration. But he was opposed to rendering a faithful and diligent officer liable to be involved in ruin, not only to himself, but family and securities. Though the power of the military was sufficient to do anything, yet he would not do justice to himself or his constituents, if he did not combat, with all his power, such an illegal and unwarranted procedure.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, favored the passage of the ordinance, and wanted to know if they went through the farce of an election to come into an unconstitutional body, &c.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, wanted to know who called the Convention of 1865. Did not that Convention declare the acts of the Convention of 1861, unconstitutional? Yet nobody was involved, on account of paying money to that body. He wanted to hear no more of it. He did not want to draw his money, for he would spend it for candy, cakes, &c., but they should wait until about to go home, and distribute it among their constituents. He thought the power of this Convention equal to anything—even unto turning over this State House. (On being asked what he intended to eat in the meantime, he replied he could get as much credit as he wanted.)

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said he knew they were in a minority, but if they left, the gentlemen on the other side would not have an opportunity to display their loyalty. While he regarded this body as unconstitutional, it was the disposition of our people to obey the laws, until declared unconstitutional by competent authority; and as the Reconstruction Acts are not now so declared, he would obey them, yet he hoped soon to see the day when they would be demolished; and though he was as loyal as any man on the floor, yet he could not pray, as they did, (if they prayed at all,)

"Now I lay me down to sleep
The Reconstruction faith I keep,
If it should change before I wake
The latest sort help me to take."

He would vote and protest against all measures that went beyond the power delegated this body by the law under which they assembled.

Mr. Heaton made a motion to amend his ordinance, by striking out the word "empowered," and inserting the word "directed."

Mr. Ellis did not see any reason why the Convention should not pass this ordinance, as it amounted only to a request. It was a Convention of the people of North Carolina under the acts of Congress. Whether those acts were unconstitutional or not, was a question people thought differently about. But as long as they were on the statute books, they were law. If the Treasurer should refuse to pay, why then the tax could be levied.

Mr. Durham replied that the gentleman from Catawba (Mr. Ellis) did not take into consideration, that the Treasurer was a bonded officer, and liable for every dollar paid out of the Treasury.

Mr. Sweet called the previous question. The call being sustained, the ordinance was put on its passage. Mr. Durham called for the yeas and nays, and the vote being taken resulted as follows: yeas 104; nays 12.

Those who voted in the negative were Messrs. Baker, Daniel, Dowd, Durham, Etheridge, Graham, of Orange, Holt, Leeson, Merritt, Sanderlin, Tourgee and Williams, of Sampson.

On motion of Mr. Taylor, the Convention adjourned.

LETTER FROM COL. JNO. D. WHITFORD, PRESIDENT OF THE ATLANTIC AND N. C. RAILROAD.

RALEIGH, Jan. 23rd, 1868.

Gentlemen:—In my letter of yesterday, it will be remembered, I attempted to show the general stagnation of the through business of the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad and in our seaport towns. I will now proceed to answer the enquiry I made.

We are told by Capt. Roanson, the courteous and able President of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, in his report, ending 1st. day of March, 1867, that "The increase of receipts from freights transported for the past year, over the receipts for the fiscal year embraced in '66 and '67, amounted to $82,374.90. This increase must be considered with the fact that the freight business of the Road was derived, to a great extent, from the transportation to and from a region of country not heretofore tributary to Norfolk and Portsmouth, in the face of extraordinary competition, and at rates considerably lower than were charged in '61. The country, to which the Seaboard Road was formerly indebted for its freight business, had been impoverished by war and by successive droughts, and was far from contributing as much as usual. In this consideration it will not be amiss to compare the tonnage of the past year with that of '60 and '61. During the past year 55,027 tons of freight have been carried, for which the Company received $271,674.25, or at an average rate of four and eight-tenth cents per ton per mile, while, in the years of '60 and '61, 35,196 tons of freight were carried, for which the Company received $131,662.60, or at an average rate of 5¼ cents per ton per mile. In enumerating the principal articles of freight carried from the Carolinas to Portsmouth, it will be seen that, during the year, there were carried 53,119 bales of cotton, 17,095 barrels of naval stores, 760,000 pounds of dried fruits, 670,500 staves, and 2,425,300 feet of lumber. The freight from Portsmouth to the Carolinas consisted chiefly of dry goods, groceries, farming implements, and guano. In addition to the amounts received from the transportation of freights by freight trains, the Company received, from the Southern Express Company, the sum of $19,193.27 for the transportation of their freight on passenger trains."

Yes, gentlemen, here is a blunder, that would have startled a Caldwell, a Gaston, a Strange or a Dudley. What! send two hundred thousand dollars, or more, out of our State Treasury and from our own ports, annually! And if this were all, as bad as it is, it would be some palliation of the error, as compared with the real facts of this case, for the Seaboard Railroad was paid $40,000, or one fifth of two hundred thousand, for the favor of permitting us to send them, during a year, about $200,000 in freights. In other words, the Seaboard Road is 79 miles in length, and the Raleigh and Gaston is 100 miles in length, and the North Carolina 223 miles in length. The first, in the division of through freights, draws pay for 100 miles, instead of 79, while the other two only receive pay for the real distances, 100 and 223, respectively. But worse than this is it with the Petersburg and Weldon Road, which is but 60 miles in length, and, in the division of freights with our Roads, draws pay, also, for 100 miles, because, as is alleged, their trains have to cross the bridge over the Roanoke of the Seaboard Road, and, consequently, cannot come in competition with it. This extra allowance, or splendid bonus, we are informed, is for the wharves and warehouses at Portsmouth, when, both at Newbern and at Morehead City, there are the most costly and convenient wharves and warehouses in the country, belonging to the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Company, and, hence, to the State, remaining comparatively idle; while $40,000 per annum are paid for the rent of those in another State!—Moreover, we look upon our wharves and warehouses on the sea as much a part of the capital stock as we do any mile of the Road, or any warehouse on its line.

After these startling results, to whom is Norfolk most indebted—to the energy and efforts of Gen. Mahone, or to the people and State of North Carolina, through the efforts of Capt. Robinson? Surely there cannot be a doubt on that point, and certainly the latter gentleman is entitled to the highest credit and honor from his citizens and stockholders for his indefatigable and successful efforts in building up his Road and seaport towns, if it is at the expense of our Road, by the depletion of our State Treasury, the ruin of our commerce, and the destruction of our towns. No, that is not the fault, but ours. If we will make our people send their produce, lumber, fruits and naval stores there and receive their goods in exchange, on that line, he cannot help it, and it would be unkind in him not to encourage it. Would our fathers endorse or tolerate such policy for a moment? Who believes it?

It may now be said, our seaport towns, Newbern, Wilmington and Morehead City, cannot successfully compete with Norfolk, and to force the business to them, over our Roads, would be a great sacrifice to the people of the interior of the State.

It was believed, a little while ago, that the freight could not be forced over the lower end of the North Carolina Railroad and past Raleigh, without great injury to the shippers. But we have seen that successfully accomplished by perseverance, with out the owners of freight even making inquiry of the route it was going,—and a feat, much more difficult than that, of "forcing" freight, to the value of more than two hundred thousand dollars, annually, away from seaport towns, distant 60 and 80 miles, for which the Roads, upon which millions were expended by our State, were especially built, to seaports in a neighboring State, one hundred and sixty miles. It is true it cost $40,000 or more, to perform this feat, but it was done, nevertheless.—There is not, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, or of the business men on the line of that road, a shadow of doubt as to their ability to compete successfully for the traffic of the North Carolina Road, with the same, or less, advantages, than were extended to the Seaboard Road.

And as long as I have already made this communication, I must beg your indulgence to say something directly in regard to the capacity and shipping of the harbors of Newbern and Morehead City. I find, by a statement kindly furnished me, since my arrival here, from a shipping house in the city of Newbern, that in two years they had 197 arrivals of sea steamers, the aggregate tonnage of which was 73,958, capacity in barrels 517,706; and sailing vessels, tonnage 23,730, capacity of barrels 237,300. They were only the sailing vessels of one house and the steamers of two, and not the commerce of the whole city. By comparing this statement of tonnage with two years of the tonnage of the Seaboard Railroad, we observe that it is about the same—50,000 tons per annum. Thus can be seen the facilities for sea transportation from one of our ports, when it is well known, during the war, the largest steamers and entire fleets of war vessels constantly visited Beaufort harbor, and received and discharged coal and army stores in immense quantities at the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad wharves. What are we to do,—give up our magnificent harbor, on the Atlantic Ocean,—give up Newbern, with all its convenience for trade? Will the people of Wilmington admit that that great enterprise, the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad, to them, will be a failure above Charlotte, which they must do, if the freight can be turned off the North Carolina Railroad, from our very doors, and carried twice the distance to Norfolk, because the advantage they gain over Beaufort harbor, or Newbern, in the difference of distances between those places and Charlotte and that place and Wilmington, more than a hundred miles, will be of no avail? No, I believe they will not, though it is not my purpose or province to say one word more in regard to the trade and improvement of that city than is necessary for the vindication of those I directly represent. And I now make the reference, to draw attention to the fact that, as foreseen by our fathers, the principal business of Charlotte, and the Road south of it, would naturally find an outlet at Wilmington, while the trade of the North Carolina Road, from Salisbury, east and west, would naturally find an outlet over the Atlantic & North Carolina Road. In the language of Gov. Dudley, the one, running through the Southern tier of counties, must think South Carolina, and the other, running through the Northern tier of counties, must think Virginia.

If this is not done, it is quite palpable that a very large portion of the freight will gradually return to the Raleigh and Gaston Road, thereby causing millions of dollars to be lost to North Carolina, in her worthless stock in broken down Railroads. The less non-paying work a road does, the better is it operating, as far as its own good is concerned; hence, if the North Carolina Road cannot get more for carrying freight to Norfolk, via Goldsboro', the interest alike of the shippers and stockholders would demand its stopping at the latter place, particularly as the managers of the Roads have been looking strictly to dividends and not to the increase of our commerce, the welfare of our ship-builders or the advancement of our seaport towns in business, wealth and population.

The Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, if I am correctly informed, have made a proposition (therefore the appointment of a committee to act upon that and proposals from other Roads) to receive the freight from the North Carolina Railroad at Raleigh and allow that Company what it gets for sending it to Norfolk, via Goldsboro',—Of course, the constant shifting of the business from one Road to another must be ruinous in the end to all; and it is clearly proven by our former experience, that the only way to obviate it is to let the freight go in its proper channel, and, as designed by the projectors of our Roads, to our own ports. It, however, after a fair and thorough trial, based upon necessary preparation and harmonious and united exertions of the managers of the North Carolina Road and its extensions East and West, the fact is revealed that, neither from the payment of dividends, nor from the enhancement of property in our seaport towns, nor from the revival of our commerce, an amount is not gained equal to, if not beyond, the injury our people will sustain in having their freight taken from the Raleigh and Norfolk and Goldsboro' and Norfolk routes, we for one would say our fathers have erred in their system—blundered in their policy, and, by their State pride, ruined North Carolina.

Therefore, let our Railroads send the business wherever they please. But I shall not question the sagacity and patriotism of those great men, while $40,000 is paid annually for 20 miles of imaginary Railroad and several thousand dollars for the rent of a bridge to enable the trains of a Road in Virginia to reach Weldon, and our own products to reach a port in another State, nor until I see whether it is possible to expend such large sums of the public money without producing any practical benefit.

Now, in accordance with the wishes of the Board of Directors of the Atlantic & N. C. R. R. Co., I hereby offer, through the Committee, to the State of North Carolina, two thirds of all the receipts from freights, over and above the expenses for transporting the same, derived from the North Carolina Railroad, which would annually amount to at least $150,000, provided the business of that Road should be turned through our ports instead of those in another State.

Further, we agree to furnish, without extra charge, wharves and ware-houses superior to and in harbors equal to any on the Atlantic coast, thereby saving to the shippers $40,000, now paid for the same.

I have this day forwarded this bid to the Committee appointed to receive it, with the request, if favorably considered, to arrange the preliminaries for the contract; for I am determined, if this freight is not secured for the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad, and the State of North Carolina, for the failure thereof no blame shall rest upon me.

Gentlemen, my task, however imperfectly, is done, for the present, and, doubtless, your patience is gone. I have, heretofore, been a silent, though not an indifferent, party in the matter. To have remained quiet longer would, in the opinion of many friends, have been doing injustice to those I represent, as well as to myself. The vast interests involved, I trust, will be a sufficient excuse for these communications and more especially for their unusual length.

With great regard,

JNO. D. WHITFORD.

RAILROAD MEETING IN GREENSBORO.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Jan. 22, 1868.

On this day a portion of the citizens of Guilford county assembled in the Court House, according to previous appointment, when the meeting was organized by appointing A. P. Eckel, Esq., Chairman, and J. W. Albright and A. W. Ingold, Secretaries.

The object of the meeting, viz: to take into consideration the completing of the Western & Coalfields Railroad, and to solicit subscriptions of stock for that purpose, were explained by D. F. Caldwell, Esq., when,

On motion, a committee, consisting of D. W. C. Benbow, C. G. Yates and James W. Albright, was appointed to wait upon the citizens of the town of Greensboro, and solicit subscriptions to the capital stock of said road, and report their success to an adjourned meeting, which the committee aforesaid is authorized to call.

On motion, the Secretaries were directed to forward a copy of the proceedings of the meeting to the Raleigh Sentinel for publication; and no further business being before the meeting, it was moved to adjourn to the call of the committee.

AN INFAMOUS SPEECH.—We suppose that a more disgusting exhibition of partisan spirit, contempt for constitutional guarantees, and the blindness of petty politicians, was never made than in the speech of Mr. Bingham, of Ohio, in closing the debate on the new reconstruction measures. He took up Stevens's cry, and boldly claimed for Congress the right to legislate outside of the Constitution. Yet these same men, who not only violate their oaths but glory in the act, who spit upon the Constitution and its guarantees, are the same who declare they will impeach the President if he dares to violate a law of their making!—*Rich. THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA, $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of those facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual Insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $500,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

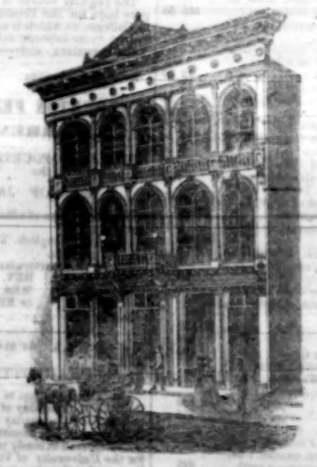

The ÆTNA has over

ABOVE LIABILITIES.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1868.

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee. R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Fonville, Admr. vs. Hurdle, et als: W. A. Albright, C. C. C., Alamance County.

The Spring session of Goldsboro Female College (E. W. Adams, President,) will commence on the 17th prox. For terms, &c., see advertisement.

CROSS MARK.—Our new Clerk, in the haste of mailing, we regret to find, has inadvertently put the cross mark on some papers improperly. We are obliged to our friends to notify us immediately when they know it to be an error. We have had the error corrected, as far as we have learned, and hope this notice will render unnecessary a reply to the letters we have received.

MAYOR'S COURT.—John Sullivan, Co. A. 8th, U. S. Infantry, arrested last night on Fayetteville Street, intoxicated, with a pass dated the 21st, January, was lodged in the Guard House, and turned over to the military authorities.

THE DRAMATIC EXHIBITION.—The third appearance of Sargent's talented Company was attended, last evening, by a full audience, who were delighted, as usual.

Bulwer's grand Drama of Richelieu was produced in a manner worthy of the highest commendation. Mr. Phelps' rendition of the character of the great Cardinal was admirable in conception and execution, while Mrs. Stetson, as Julie, and Mr. J. P. Sutton, as Baradas, came fully up to the high estimate which the public have already put upon their histrionic abilities. We may say, without drawing invidious distinctions, that the entire play was produced in a manner that would have done credit to any boards. As has been the case on each preceding evening, the leading characters were called out to the foot lights by the audience, and returned their acknowledgments in a becoming manner.

The farce was highly amusing. Mr. Howland possesses good capacity as a Comedian, and has grown to be a deserved favorite.—His very appearance is the signal for a laugh.

Mr. Sargent has spared no pains to please the public and give them a high order of entertainment, and his efforts have been successful, at least in the appreciation of those who have attended the exhibitions of his Company.

A marked improvement has been made by the Messrs. Tucker in the accommodations of their splendid Hall, in arranging the seats on a sliding scale—thereby enabling those in the rear to see less obstructedly.

ROBBERIES.—We feel it our duty to put our citizens on the alert, in view of recent numerous robberies committed in this City and vicinity. We have heard of several of a glaring character within a few days,—the most flagrant of which is the breaking open of the smoke-house of W. H. High, Esq., and the theft of all his supplies of meat. Keep a vigilant watch upon your premises, especially where there are any provisions kept. In these times of vagrancy and demoralization, nothing is secure that is not closely guarded.

ONSLOW.—A meeting of the Conservatives of this County was held on the 6th. inst., at which a County Executive Committee was appointed and delegates to the approaching Conservative State Convention named.

W. F. HENDERSON, OF DAVIDSON.—Sometime in the month of October last, we stated in the Sentinel, as an item of news, furnished us by a responsible gentleman who had been in attendance at the Superior Court of Davidson county, that, during the term, W. F. Henderson, of that county, had been indicted, by the Grand Jury, for stealing a mule. At that time we had no doubt of the correctness of the indictment, and that the prosecution would be just and proper; otherwise, we should not have published the item.

We now take pleasure in saying, that, from the facts presented to our consideration, on yesterday, by Mr. Henderson, and corroborated by D. Loftin, Esq., the former, if not the present, Sheriff of Davidson, we believe Mr. Henderson to have been maliciously and falsely accused in this instance. It appears that one Henry Dorr, of Davidson, had a mule stolen from him, by a white man named Jeremiah Glover, of Rowan, in 1865 or '66; that in 1866 said Glover was arrested, through the agency of Henderson, to whose brother he had sold the mule, was indicted in Davidson Court, and was convicted in the Superior Court of Forsythe, whither he had removed the case, and was punished according to law. Henderson alledges that this same Dorr, because of personal spite, was the person who caused his presentment for the same offence for which Glover had been convicted, before the Grand Jury at the late fall term in Davidson.

It is unaccountable that the Solicitor, Capt. Settle, who prosecuted Glover, and was cognizant of all the facts, so far as the mule stealing in this case was concerned, did not at once enter a nolle pros in the case of Mr. H.

CONGRESS OUGHT at once to be taken in hand,—at least such members of the present Congress as belonged to that which flourished in the year of Grace, 1863. At the period mentioned, the National Legislature passed a bill, creating the "Department of Negro Affairs!" The Indignants at the North end of Fayetteville Street should at once pass a resolution, declaratory of their purpose to refuse to carry the State into the Union, until those, who so characterized "gentlemen of color," whether they be "natives of St. Thomas, the West Indies," or Congo, are read out of the Republican party. Hood should take the matter to heart at once, while the Committee on Education and Schools will be recreant, if they do not bring all English Lexicographers, dead and living, to the bar of the Convention, (so-called.)

THANKFUL FOR SMALL FAVORS.—The Register and Standard seem to be much pleased at the tone of Gov. Worth's note to the Convention. Gov. Worth is a gentleman and cannot be unnecessarily rude, but we are at a loss to see the "crumb of comfort" which that note contains. Point it out. Is there any recognition of the constitutional character of the body? Where? By the way, the Register is daily becoming more "black and tan." Good bye, neighbor.

House.—The report of the Conference Committee on the Cotton Tax was not agreed to, and a new Committee was appointed.

The death of Mr. Hise, of Kentucky, was announced, and the House adjourned.

Senate.—Messrs. Edmonds and Johnson took issue with the President's opinion that the bill striking "white" from the District ordinances died during the recess. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate adhered to its amendments to the deficiency bill, forbidding appropriations for the Quartermaster's Department being expended for reconstruction or any other purpose.

Gen. Howard was called on for an elaborate report regarding abandoned lands and other relative matters.

The joint resolutions authorizing the distribution of desiccated meats and vegetables not needed by the army to the sufferers in the South, passed.

Reconstruction was resumed. Mr. Norton spoke. Mr. Nye follows. The argument will probably last ten days.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24, P. M.

In the Supreme Court the case of Texas vs. White et als came up. This is on a motion to dissolve an injunction heretofore granted, restraining the defendants from disposing of certain bonds. The defendants rest their case upon the argument that Texas is not a State in the Union, and therefore is not entitled to appear here. This point must be settled before the case can proceed.

Revenue to-day $300,000.

The West Virginia Legislature has passed a resolution instructing the United States Senators from that State to vote for the House Supreme Court bill.

At a large meeting at Jersey City resolutions were adopted denouncing the Supreme Court and Reconstruction bill.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of New York in session at Albany has passed a resolution excluding negro representatives.

RICHMOND, Jan. 24, P. M.

The first Article of the Constitution was adopted.

A case comes before the U. S. Circuit Court to-morrow, on a writ of habeas corpus, to test the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts.—The prisoner is in Libby Prison, for murder, and the point made is that Schofield has no right to hold him, if not a soldier or sailor in the United States service.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 24, P. M.

The Convention, to-day, was the scene of an interesting debate between colored delegates, on measures of relief for the people. It was urged on one hand, by the extremists, that the whites, owning property about to be sacrificed at the Sheriffs' sales, sought to suffer by reason of participation in the war, and on the other hand, that the sales would be made to speculators and strangers, who would hold the property at exorbitant prices, thereby forbidding the development of the enterprising colored race.

The feeling of the majority is, evidently, to protect all classes from ruin, until the Legislature can adopt permanent measures of relief.

FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 24, P. M.

The question of privileges was discussed.

Some time was taken up in discussing the Press.

The Committee on privileges and elections reported, and after an earnest and excited debate the report was made a special order for Monday next. Adjourned to Monday.

GEORGIA—MONEY WANTED.

ATLANTA, Jan. 24, P. M.

An ineffectual effort was made to have two sessions daily.

A resolution asking the U. S. Government to advance its per diem and expenses to the Convention was introduced. Referred to a special Committee, to report to-morrow.

A resolution that the Finance Committee see on what terms the Convention could negotiate a loan, of from fifty to a hundred thousand dollars, was adopted.

A resolution to adjourn until pay could be obtained was tabled.

The Convention's Financial Agent reported that he had received $10,000 from the Military State Treasurer, which he held subject to the instructions of the Convention.

A resolution was immediately offered to pay each member $50, but was not acted on.

The usual treason section was adopted.

LOOK TO THE STAMPS.—At the present session of the United States Court no less than fifty of our most respectable retailers are indicted for selling sardines, cosmetics, perfumery, etc., of foreign importation, without a revenue stamp. The impression prevails generally amongst storekeepers that because these articles have already paid an import duty, and in gold, that they are relieved from further taxation, but it is not so; such articles, according to the internal revenue laws, require a stamp, and the vender is liable to a fine of fifty dollars for each violation. There are now several United States detectives, regularly commissioned, who trade with the ignorant and unwary, and we would therefore advise those who offer such articles for sale to look to their stamps—Charleston Mercury.

It is reported that the current of that wonderful ocean river, the "Gulf Stream," has nearly doubled its velocity. The phenomenon was noticed at about the date of the late remarkable series of earthquakes, and is, of course, supposed to have some intimate connection with those convulsions. The immediate result of increased force in the current has been to augment the dangers of navigation near the Florida Keys, even steam vessels finding it difficult to weather points easily passed previous to the increased velocity of the stream.

The death of John Jacob Astor divulges facts which seem like a romance. For about half a century the deceased—who had been deranged since his seventeenth year—has lived in a spacious house up town, where he has had his attendants and physicians. The building was surrounded by a high fence; and the very existence of its unfortunate millionaire inmate was unknown to the present generation.

According to the New York Times, Gen. Butler admits that "the Radicals in Virginia cannot carry their constitution, unless they have the State government given to them."

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

TERMS MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

DAILY SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1868.

From the New York Herald.

A BILL TO DISSOLVE CIVIL SOCIETY AND TO ABOLISH THE EXECUTIVE.

The new Reconstruction bill, so-called, reported by Mr. Bingham from the Committee on Reconstruction and now pending before Congress, shows how language can be perverted in its application to partisan measures. This bill has a title the very reverse of its character and object. Its proper title would be, "A bill to dissolve civil society and to abolish the Executive."

First, it declares that in the Southern States "there are no civil governments, and that the so-called civil governments in said States respectively shall not be recognized as valid or legal State governments either by the executive or judicial power or authority of the United States." This sweeping revolutionary measure dissolves all civil society, makes all laws invalid and inoperative, abolishes the right of property, leaves the people without municipal or local laws for the protection of property, life, and liberty, and reduces over ten million of people to a disorganized condition worse than that of the barbarian tribes of Africa or the South Sea Islands. What chaos! what a frightful condition for the South and Southern people to be placed in! But the Southerners will not be the only sufferers. Northern debtors, Northern merchants and capitalists, who have invested in the South or who have debts owing to them there, are cut off from all legal means of recovering their property. It is virtual repudiation on a large scale. Contracts are rendered void and abrogated. All business must be suspended, confidence will be destroyed, and the whole South, already at the point of starvation, will be turned into a wilderness. Such is the infamous bill which a radical Congress has the hardihood to call a reconstruction law. It is the grimmest joke and most cruel sarcasm ever attempted.

The authority of the President, which the people of the United States, from the foundation of the government, have regarded as constitutionally vested in him, is abolished. Congress presumes to say that he shall not be Commander-in-Chief of the Army, though the constitution says he shall. This is what this infamous act declares:—"The General of the Army of the United States (Grant) is hereby authorized and required to enjoin, by special orders, upon all officers in command within the several military departments within said several States, the performance of all acts authorized by said several laws above recited, and to remove by his order from command any or all of said commanders, and detail other officers of the United States army, not below the rank of colonel, to perform the duties and exercise all the powers authorized by said several acts." Thus Grant is made Commander-in-Chief in place of the President, and the constitutional functions of the President are abolished.

But this is not all. The third section of the bill says that "the General of the Army may remove any or all civil officers and appoint others to discharge the duties." Here the military power is placed strictly over the civil and executive power of the President, both in the matter of removal from and appointment to purely civil offices. This is going further even than the Jacobin Convention of France in the assumption of despotic authority and subjugation of every other branch of government. Indeed, the conduct of Congress is more criminal, for it pretends to be acting within the limits of its legislative capacity, while the French Convention was honest enough to avow primary powers above all constitutions.

To cap the climax of this revolutionary measure, it is made unlawful for the President of the United States to enforce the civil law, and it is provided that "any interference by any person (by the President) with intent to prevent by force the execution of the orders of the General of the Army shall be held to be a high misdemeanor, and the party guilty thereof shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars and imprisoned not less than two years." A penalty is imposed upon the President, as upon some burglar or other vile criminal, for any attempt to execute his constitutional functions as the Executive and Commander-in-Chief.—Usurpation and revolution cannot go further short of arresting and deposing the President and declaring the office absolutely abolished. The Radicals in Congress have reached that limit, and the next step is a Directory, after the model of the French Directory, and a military despotism over the whole country, North as well as South. This would be exactly suited to the ideas of Ben. Wade, Thad. Stevens and others of the Mountain faction, who boldly decry the constitution is destroyed.

The Tenure of Office bill and the proposed control over the action of the Supreme Court by Congress are parts of the same general plan to destroy the government and the liberties of the people. A great deal is said about the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of these measures. Whether they be regarded constitutional or not, according to the strict letter, they are certainly unconstitutional or super-constitutional in principle, according to the practice of the government from its foundation. It is possible there may be a defect in the letter of the constitution with regard to this matter, for the founders of the government could hardly have anticipated such atrocious usurpation on the part of Congress. They never expected the counterpart of the Long Parliament in England or the Convention in France would exist in this free country. It is no use discussing the constitutional point on these or any other measures, when Congress is acting all along outside of the constitution. This Puritan and negro faction will certainly not be restrained by constitutional arguments. They have got the power for a time, and will use it. The only appeal left is to the people at the polls. We shall have that to resort to before the year is out, if the revolutionists do not utterly destroy the government in the meantime.

There is, however, some shaking among the dry bones. There are some signs of consternation among the radicals. We see it in their anxiety about the national finances, national credit and the bonds they hold. Few of the bonds are in the hands of Democrats, and a great many are held by the New England radicals, who take care to keep the gold paying ones, though they have some of the more doubtful bonds also. Most of these latter, however, they have sent to England. No people love the almighty dollar better; they love it far more than they do the negro, and it would be a fortunate thing if they were to get so frightened about their securities as to become more rational and conservative. We advise them to think seriously about their bonds before they plunge the country into further and inextricable trouble.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C., Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Jan. 1—124-tf BRIGGS & DODD.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licences for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions;

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th, and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such personalable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
